Rotary Food Dehydrator 16 Trays Stainless Steel Fruit Dryer

Main features:

The Rotary Food Dehydrator is a high-performance, stainless steel machine designed for efficiently drying a variety of foods, including fruits, vegetables, herbs, and meats. With 16 spacious trays, this dehydrator offers ample capacity for large batches, making it perfect for commercial kitchens, farms, or home use. The rotating mechanism ensures even drying, while the stainless steel construction guarantees durability, hygiene, and easy cleaning.

Most of the hot air circulates in the sealed oven, with high heating efficiency and energy saving.

It has the function of forced ventilation and is equipped with adjustable air volume partitions, with high drying uniformity.

The fruit dryer can be made of carbon steel or stainless steel as required, with the latest design and easy operation. Low working noise, stable working conditions, automatic temperature control system, easy installation and maintenance.

The system can freely control the temperature automatically, which is very easy to install and maintain.

Suitable for home use and commercial use.

Suitable for households, dry goods stores, pharmacies, factories, markets.

Apply to dry fruits, vegetables, meat, herbs, nuts, and other kinds of food.
